

International Efforts to Managing for Development Results

Per O. Bastoe,
Results Management Unit, ADB

Emerging reorientation of international development

- ✓ From project lending to broad-based poverty reduction and capacity development
- ✓ From project focus to country focus
- ✓ From input orientation to outcome orientation
- ✓ From use of separate systems to alignment with country systems
- ✓ From agency focus to donor harmonization

Major International Events

2000: UN Millennium Assembly

2002: Monterrey Conference on Financing for Development

2003: Rome High Level Forum on Harmonization

2004: Marrakesh Roundtable on Results

2005: Paris High Level Forum
on Aid Effectiveness

Paris HLF on Aid Effectiveness

Ownership, Harmonization, Alignment
Results and Mutual Accountability

- ✓ Sponsored by WB, AsDB, AfDB, EBRD, OECD, UN and France
- ✓ More than 100 countries, 30 multilateral organizations and several CSOs/NGOs
- ✓ Paris Declaration with 50 commitments to improve development effectiveness
- ✓ Twelve indicators and targets

Paris HLF key commitments

- ✓ Base all assistance on national development strategies
- ✓ Use country systems
- ✓ Harmonize support
- ✓ Be results-oriented
- ✓ Strengthen local capacities

Results Orientation as the Golden Tread:

- ✓ Focus on country level results
- ✓ Use of results frameworks to clarify the logical approach
- ✓ Increased use of monitoring and evaluation at all levels
- ✓ Enhancing management capacity
- ✓ Strengthened learning culture